

New Bern Foreclosures and Craigs List

Contributed by Lee
Thursday, 28 January 2010

Foreclosures are not over running our local real estate market here in New Bern NC but they are popping up even more these days. In fact there is one in my neighborhood that would be a great buy for someone.

This house has about 1 acre of usable flat land, a swimming pool that is in ground, 3/4 bedroom, 2 bathrooms, open bonus room, 2 car garage and more.

Contact NC Properties Online for more information on this and other homes in foreclosure.

Also, People from foreign countries are taking people's information from their websites and are posting it on Craig's list. These people claim to be the owners of the property in the ad but they are not. In fact these scammers are out of the country so they are unable to show the home to the potential renter. See Christina Ward for more information. Real estate agents need to be aware of these scams.